ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)

REMARKS

25X1X

1. On 18 December 1953, the Damm Fliegerhorst installation near Jueterbog was heavily occupied. All garret windows were lighted after nightfall. One-story temporary quartering buildings, about 70 meters long, were under construction in the installation. Sections of these buildings were daily hauled to the installation. About 400 to 500 troops, mostly recruits, were daily observed at basic training, throwing of hand grenades, close-combat practice, range estimation and entrenching work, as well as service of the piece drill on 4 to 6 x 76-mm field guns and exercises on 3 direction finders. An undetermined number of recruits received training in driving with 3 to 4 trucks and T-34/85 tanks.
